Dear Parent(s)/Guardian(s):

SGB ELECTION:

The SGB election took place on Monday evening 5 March 2018. The five elected parent governors, in alphabetical order, are Este Buchholz, Cathryn Hodgkinson, Nicolette Rotter, Vanessa September and Ina Tayler. Thank you to those parents that availed themselves for nomination and were not elected. Thank you as well to all the parents who made the effort to attend the meeting to vote for the parent members of the SGB. Thank you to the outgoing SGB for their voluntary time, commitment and service as members of the Camps Bay Primary School SGB. The educator representatives elected to serve on the SGB are Luke Rycroft and Ruth Pearson and the non-educator elected to represent support staff is Michelle Fernandes.

We wish the newly elected SGB all the best for good governance in their term office. The first governing body meeting of the newly elected SGB will take place next week Tuesday 13 March in which key positions such as a chairperson, treasurer and secretary will be nominated and elected and various sub-committees will also be formed. I will keep you informed of these positions and sub-committees after the meeting.

OPEN DAY 2018:

We had a successful Open Day today at the Preparatory campus. Thank you to all our visitors, POPS parent helpers and the Uniform Shop for their presence and making the day special! Thank you to our boys and girls for their excellent example of "Doing the right thing", while many visitors entered their classrooms.

CIRCLE SPORTS DAY:
